

Donations to missions through iMAP

The full tax write off at the marginal rate for charitable giving remains the only tax shelter untouched in recent budgets and donors should avail of this continuing generosity by Government this year while it lasts. The tax write off may not continue into 2012.